SOME STIRRING EXPERIENCES OF A VETERAN CAMPAIGNER

BY COMMISSIONER CADMAN.

(Reprinted from the British "War Cry.") F we are to reach the people God says we must go to them. But before we are to reach the people God says we must go to them. But before we dare go we must first have a personal interview with God Hanself, face to face. That is what Moses had at the burning bush, and he reface to face. That is what Moses had at the binning bush, and he re-ceived such a baptism that he went forth in the strength of God, turned Egypt upside down, overthrew Pharaoh and his host, and delivered God's

As an Officer it has always been my conviction that our greatest opportunity for reaching crowds lies in the open air. We must go after the peo tunity for reacting crowds nes in the open air. We must go after the people. The work of the prophets and sportles and saints of old was done amongst the people, in the highways, byways, and market-places. This is where we the people, in the highways, byways, and market-places. This is where we are commanded to go. It was in a public market-place where God in a miraculous way first appeared to me, and it was in this cell-same market-place that I first began to proclaim God's truth. So you can understand piace that I tirst began to procision Good's truth. So you can understand I have always had a peculiar love for market-places and other spots where people are in the habit of assembling.

I have seen multitudes of sinners converted at the drum-head in the open air, and multitudes more convicted as they atood; and I could next count the number who have followed our processions to the Citadels. For a crowd will always draw a crowd.

WANT THE GOSPEL ROUGH.

One day I was leading an open-air meeting in one of our big towns. There was a great crowd, and as I stood on the platform pouring out my soul upon the people a little group of drunkein men kept chipping in with questions and nasly remarks. Presently I stopped dead and shin cid, "All you 'drunks' come here and support me." Four came.

"What do you want us to do?" they asked.

"Oh!" I said, "I want you to say 'Annoo' when I tell you."

I put my hand on the shoulder of one while I went on talking. He very soon had the shivers. "Now," I said, "sneel down there and ask God to save you!" Some seeme want the Gessed rough. It doesn't do to be save you!"

HOW DO YOU PRAY?

Prayer should be the ophiting of the heart to God, as natural as breathing and entirely devoid of self-consciousness. Much that we call breathing and entirely devoid of sett-contectionstess. Much that we call-prayer when we kned at our hed-side at night is answelly of the state of the settlement of the settlement the petitions we utter. What futle, perty, self-ful prayers they are. If in the coal light of day we could see the junible of words we have utter-ced, from salmed to time-fine, of life-we speak clearly and intelligently, but when at the end of it the day's duties we kneed for a rew minutes, how dill are our senses, how con-tined are our thoughts, how in-contents on the self-full prayers of minutes. The self-full prayers are consistent on the self-full prayers of a minute.

If you are not utterly years and have no flow of petition rising from your heart, "wait on the Lord" for a conewal of your strength. Do your a renewal of your strength. Do you know what it is o mount up on wings as eagles? On rare occasions it has been given to some of us to forget time and space and to mount up "on wings." Such experiences are almost too sacred for words amost too secred for world.

One does not need to be for ever crying, "Give—give—give." Our Folher knows not only what it is in our hearts to ask, but (and this is sometimes very different) what we could need to ne sometimes very different) what we really need. Let petition have its place, but it is vital to our spiritual life to con-mine with God. In the spirit of childlike trust let us be shear before the Throne of Heaven. Our prayers should not be like a liabiling bynok which goes fussing on its way to the neighbouring stream, but like the strong tide of a deep river which makes its silent way to the neighty

A man brought a parrot from a foreign part, and while on shiphoard the sailors taught the bird to swear most projagely. After reaching the owner met a religious friend who had a parrot which had learned to pray most devouly. To improve the manners of the profane bird, it was proposed to put it with the other bird, that it might learne to pray. The result was that the praying bird learned to swear, but the swearing, bird did not learn to pray.

SONGS OF SALVATION

TURN YE. Tuncs-My Jesus, I love Theo, 185, Eb; Oh, turn ye, 199. C; Song-Dook, 99

Oh, turn ve, Oh, turn ye, for why will ye die, When God in great mercy is draw-

When God in great merey is unawing so night.

Now Jesus invites you, the Spirit says, "Come!"

And angels are waiting to welcome you home.

How vain the delusion that while

How vain the delusion that wanter you delay Your heart may grow better by staying away!

Come wretched, come starving, come just as you be.

While streams of Salvation are flowing so free. Why will you be starving, and feeding on air?

There's mercy in Jesus, enough and to spare; It still you are doubting, make trial It still you are doubting, make trial and see.

And prove that His succey is boundless and free.

PRAYING, FOR YOU.

Tupos-New you. I am breather, 20%, 6%.

less and free.

CLAIM ME. Tunes—Rosseau, 90, Ab; Balh Abbey, 623, D; As with gladness, B.M. 3, S. 15, C; Song-Book, 452.

11 so poor a soul as 1
May to Thy great glory live,

May to Thy great glory live,
All my actions smetily,
All my words and thoughts receive;
Chaim me for Thy service, claim
All I have and all I am.

Take my sonl and hody's powers.
Take my sonl and hody's powers.
Take my mentory, mind, and will,
All my goods, and all my hours,
All I know, and all I feel,
All I think or speak or do;
Take my heart—hou make it new!

Now, my God. Thine own I am, Now I give Thee back Thine own; Freedom, friends, and health, and fame. Consecrate to Thee alone;

Thine I live, thrice happy I, For souls to fight, for Christ to die.

GOD'S WRATH

THE LIVING WATERS. -Down where the llying waters, 221 Bb; Song-Book, 281, Ouce I was far in sin. Put leeve took me in But Jesus took me in,

Down where the living waters flow;
"Twas there He gare me sight,
And let me see the light,
Down where the living waters flow.

Down where the living waters llow,

Pown where the tree of the does grow, I'm living in the tight, For Jesus now I fight, Down where the living waters flow.

With Jesus at my side,
I need no other guide,
Down where the living waters flow:
He is my Hope and Stay!
He caves me every day,
Down where the living waters llow.

PRAYING FOR YOU.

For you I am praying, I'm praying for you.

A nope the elemity, messed and true;
And soon He will call me to meet Him in Heaven.
But, Oh, may He lead you to go will me too!

With me too!

When Jesus has found you, tell others the story.
That my loving Saviour is your Saviour too:
Then peay that your Saviour may bring them to Glory.
And prayer will be auswerrd—twas answered for you!
